Expectation Agreement

This is an agreement between you and you, a personal agreement with yourself.

As a student of Real Raise 101, I choose the following outcome from the two choices below: (select only one)

I understand that by not printing this agreement and by not signing it, and further, by not taking any other action except listening to or reading the course materials, I am unlikely to get a Real Raise, now or in the future. By taking no action, I am by default choosing this outcome. I realize that no action is required.

I understand and agree that by taking action on the concepts and ideas of real raise 101, I can expect fantastic results to whatever extent that I take action and implement these ideas. By checking this box, signing below, and crossing out the above option, I am choosing this outcome.
